News From Cleora.

Some people around here are preparing to plant some cotton this week, only about 3 or 4 acre to the plow. Some are not going to plant any. Mr. Levy Quarles has cut out cotton, is milking seven cows, and is carrying his and some of his neighbors' butter to Augusta once a week and if he can work up a very good trade others will substitute cows for cotton.

The prospects for grain so far is as good as I have ever seen in this neighborhood, and if seasons hold out a good crop will be made. Some wanted to use soda on their wheat, but the price went too high.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brunson from Aiken spent last week with Mr. Brunson's brothers and is spending this week in the Fehoboth section with Mrs. Brunson's family.

Mr. A. L. Brunson came home last week after spending a month with his daughter, Mrs. W. C. Tompkins, under treatment of Drs. Tompkins and Marsh. He was very much improved.

Mr. Strom Cothran and Mr. Charlie Griffiths have had several children sick with flu, some seriously sick, but they are improving now.

The lumber and cross tie business is still on a boom around here. You can often count 25 to 30 wagons loaded with cross ties pass in one day, on their way to Plum Branch. Some come within four miles of Edgefield. There soon wont be a pine or oak tree left big enough to square six inches in this section.

The Brunson school closed last week.

Mr. P. B. Thomas has moved back to his home and opened his store again.

Mr. George Strom has moved back to his old home.

Mr. N. D. Robertson is now living with his daughter, Mrs. P. B. Thomas, having come up from Augusta about a month ago.

Miss Alma Williams who is teaching at Plum Branch spent the weekend with the home folks.

Mr. John Seigler repaired the Gilgal bridge some time ago.

Mr. Frank West and Mr. Lovie Mims were up here last week trying to buy more timber to be cut for the Edgefield Lumber Co.

Red Hill News.

Not many attended Sunday school Sunday morning as there was an all day meeting at the Methodist church.

Miss Martha McDaniel is spending this week with her brother, Mr. Arthur McDaniel.

Miss Lillian Holmes is improving after being sick with mumps.

Mr. Earl Prince made a business trip to Parksville Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Earl Wash of Cleora was among the visitors here Sunday.

Mr. J. T. Bigham and Mr. O. J. Holmes dined with Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Bussey at Flat Rock Sunday.

Quite a crowd of Red Hill young people attended preaching at Rehoboth Sunday morning, among them being one of the teachers, Miss Mattie Stalnaker.

Mrs. Sallie McDaniel had as her guests Saturday night, Lydia and Mamie Holmes, Myrtis McClendon and Mrs. Jasper McDaniel and family.

Sunday morning at eleven o'clock we will have an Easter program, also preaching by Rev. Mr. Edwards of Johnston. Hope to have a large crowd as he is going to preach a trial sermon.

Epworth News.

The weather has been somewhat cool this Easter, although we have had some warm weather lately.

Mr. and Mrs. Zack Ouzts spent last Monday night at Cleora with Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Harris.

Miss Mattie Freeland has returned from Laurens where she has been spending a while with her brother, Mr. Kim Freeland. She reported a splendid time.

Miss Gladys Robertson of Kirksey spent last Tuesday night with Miss Gertrude Boone.

Misses Corrie Lou and Jennie Dorn were the guest of Misses Helen and Ernestine Chappell one night last week.

Mr. Gaines Boone spent Easter with relatives and friends in this vicinity.

The Y. W. A.'s and Sunbeams carried out a very interesting program at Mountain Creek last Sunday.

The Friendship prayer meeting met with Mrs. Madge McDowell last Saturday night.

Miss Fannie Harris returned to her home in Edgefield last Sunday after spending several days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Johnson. Miss Evelyn Johnson accompanied her home for a few days.

Mr. Julian Wertz of Ninety Six was a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Strom last Sunday.

We are glad to report Mrs. John Seigler much improved from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mellichamp and little sons, Bob and Bill, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Strom.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Bill McDowell on the sick list.

Mrs. E. G. Cogburn of North Augusta visited her sister, Mrs. B. L. Connelly last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Walton of Meeting Street were the spend the day guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Johnson on last Thursday.

Mrs. Sam Mays visited her sister, Mrs. Goode Williams last week.

Mr. W. L. Mellichamp was a business visitor in the Cleora section last Wednesday.

Colliers News.

In spite of the windy weather everyone has tried his luck for fishing.

There was a picnic on Big Creek Saturday. Mr. Lewis Hammond, Jr., took sixteen over in his truck. The boys had been on the creek for two nights to catch fish for the picnic and had about forty pounds. Baskets were carried by the ladies. The very bountiful dinner was spread upon the ground under the spreading oaks. There was a large number present and everyone said they never had spent such a pleasant day.

Mr. Joe Hammond gave a fish fry at his store Saturday night, which was a great success.

The children of Colliers school had an Easter egg hunt Friday afternoon. A prize was offered to the one who found the most eggs. Miss Annie Ethel Miller was the winner.

Miss Effie Adams has gone for a visit to her brother, Mr. Robert Adams near Atlanta, Ga.

We are sorry to say Mrs. J. F. Pardue is on the sick list.

Mr. J. M. Holland conducted the service for prayer meeting Wednesday night, reading the 21st chapter of Revelation, after which he made a talk, which was enjoyed by everyone. On account of the farmers being very busy with their crops, prayer meeting was changed to Saturday night.

Miss Julia Miller spent Saturday night with her sister, Mrs. Jack Hammond.

Dr. and Mrs. Harris Mathis spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Mathis, Dr. Mathis' parents.

Misses Vana Morgan and Mary Carroll were the guests of Miss Julia Miller Sunday.

There were not many present at Sunday school Sunday. The superintendent, Mr. Holland added very much to the service by making a talk on Easter.

We were glad to have Miss Hazel Atkinson at Sunday school on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller spent Sunday in the Antioch section.

Misses Blanche and Sunie Mae Hammond have gone to Columbia to enter training at the Baptist Hospital.

"ICE."

I wish to give good service and good Ice, and as cheap as possible, as I have always done. I would suggest and ask the housewives and everybody who needs Ice in the morning to order immediately after the breakfast hour and immediately after the dinner hour. The town of Edgefield is very difficult to get over in a short while and by getting in orders early, I can arrange my delivery trips so as not so be compelled to make extratrips to get your Ice to you on time. I have Ice books on hand and will be glad to deliver on request.

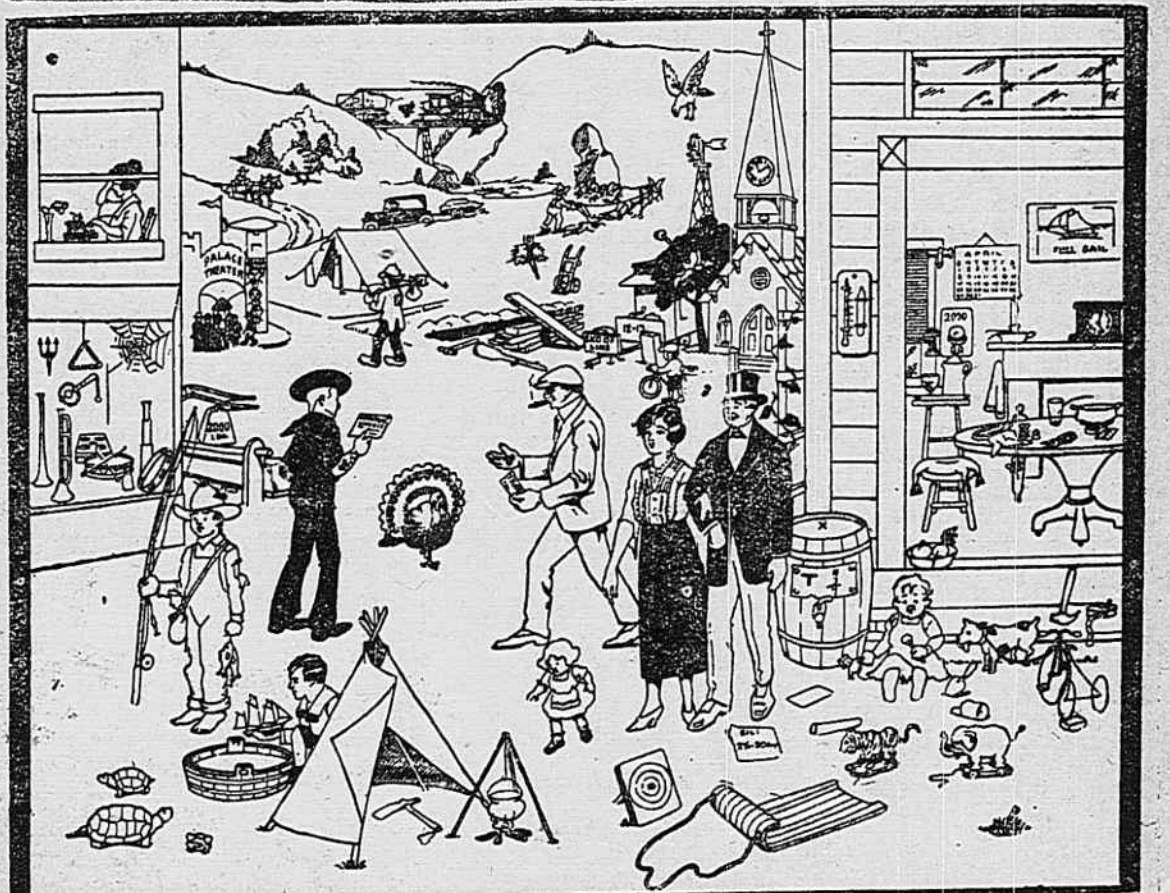

Yours for Service,

M. A. Taylor.

Find the Objects in This Picture Starting With the Letter "T"

The Picture above contains a number of objects and articles the names of which start with the letter "T." You can readily see such objects as "Turtle," "Tent," "Table," etc. The others are just as easy to find and you don't have to turn the picture upside-down or sideways to see them. There is no trick at all to this puzzle, just get out a pencil and paper and write down the names of the objects you can find.

Fifteen BIG CASH PRIZES will be given for the fifteen best lists sent in. The answer having the largest and nearest correct list of visible objects shown in the picture will be awarded First Prize; second best, Second Prize, etc.

Everybody Join In

The Chronicle's Picture Puzzle Game is a game in which all can participate, from the youngsters to grandmas and grandpas. All the objects in this picture have been made perfectly plain and with no intent to disguise or hide them. It's simply a test of skill, your ability to find the objects shown in the picture determines the prize you win. Gather all the members of your family together this evening and see which of you can find the most.

Costs Nothing To Try

The Chronicle invites you all to take part in this unique Fun Game. It's full of fun and excitement, and educational and interesting to everyone. This is not a subscription contest and you don't have to send in a single subscription to win a prize. Just make up your list of "T-words" and mail to H. Henderson, Puzzle Manager, The Augusta Chronicle.

FOLLOW THESE RULES

- This Puzzle Game is open to any man, woman, boy or girl, who was not a winner of The Chronicle's past Picture-Puzzle Game, or who is not an employee of The Augusta Chronicle or member of an employee's family. It costs nothing to take part in the game.
- Answers should be written on one side of the paper only, and words numbered consecutively, 1, 2, 3, etc. The sender's name and address should be in the upper right-hand corner of each sheet.
- All answers must be mailed before midnight, Monday, May 8, 1922, and addressed to H. Henderson, Puzzle Manager, The Augusta Chronicle.
- Only those words which are found in the English Dictionary will be counted. Do not use compound, hyphenated or obsolete words. Either the singular or plural can be used, but not both.
- Words of the same spelling can be used only once, even, though used to designate different objects. The same object can be named only once, although any part of the object may also be named. Where there is more than one word equally applicable to the object, any one of them will count.
- The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of words beginning with the letter "T" will win first prize; second nearest, second prize, etc. One point will be given for each correct word sent in, and one point will be taken off for each incorrect word or omission. Neatness, style or handwriting will have no bearing upon deciding the winners.
- All answers will receive the same attention regardless of whether or not a subscription is sent in.
- Candidates may work together in answering the puzzle, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household. Nor will more than one prize be awarded to any group outside of the family where two or more have been working together.
- In the event of a tie for any prize offered, the full amount of the prize will be paid to each person so tied.
- The following well-known persons of Augusta will act as judges: Miss Julia A. Finch, instructor of history and economics, Tubman High School, Augusta; Mr. T. G. Tarver, cashier Citizens & Southern Bank of Augusta; Mr. Clifford T. Sezo, principal Woodlawn Grammar School, Augusta. They will use as reference Webster's New International Dictionary and contestants agree to accept their decision as final and conclusive.
- These judges will meet directly following the close of the contest and the names of the prize-winners and the winning list of words will be published in The Chronicle just as quickly thereafter as the judges can complete the checking.

YOU CAN WIN $1000.00

It costs nothing to try and you don't have to send in a single subscription in order to win a prize. If the judges award your answer first prize you will win $300.00. But, if you would like to win more than $300.00, you are given an opportunity during this publicity campaign to win as much as $1,000.00 by sending in one or two six-months subscriptions, with remittance to cover, to "The Augusta Chronicle."

HOW: If your list of "T-words" is awarded First Prize by the Judges and you have sent on: six-months subscription (either new or renewal) to The Augusta Chronicle, you will receive $350.00 in place of only $30.00. (See second column of figures in prize list).

OR, if you are awarded first prize and have sent TWO six-months subscriptions or one for a full year, you will receive $1,000.00 in place of only $30.00. (See third column of figures in prize list.)

Two subscriptions are all you need to qualify your answer for the big bonus rewards. Absolutely two subscriptions is the maximum and there can be either new or renewal. Your own subscription will count as one and you can get the subscription of a friend or neighbor. Or, you can send in your own subscription for a full year and this will fully qualify your answer. We can also take subscriptions to start at any future date. In sending in subscriptions give full instructions on a separate sheet from that on which you send in your answer.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Payable in Advance.

Notice to Democratic Clubs of Edgefield County.

As provided under Rule 5 of the Democratic party of South Carolina, the Democratic clubs of Edgefield county are required to meet on April 22, the fourth Saturday, for the purpose of reorganizing and electing delegates to the county convention to be held at Edgefield the 1st Monday in May.

They shall elect a president, one or more vice-presidents, secretary, and treasurer, an executive committee, one delegate to the county convention for each 25 members and one delegate for a majority fraction thereof based upon the number of votes polled by the club in the first primary of 1920. In addition to the foregoing, each club should elect a committee on enrollment or registration, an executive committee and such other committees as each club may deem expedient.

The members of all clubs are urged to meet, reorganize and elect officers and delegates as required under the rules of the party.

Clubs will please forward as early as possible after re-organizing a complete list of their officers and delegates to the undersigned.

J. L. MIMS,
County Chairman.
